Letter From the West.

Ft. Towson, I. T.
 July 11, 1907.

Editors Record-Press,

Dear Sirs:—As this is a lonely, rainy day in the pine forests of the West, I thought I would try to make a few moments pleasant by writing a line to your dear old paper.

I left Piggott, Ark., July 4th, going from there to Texarkana, Ark. over the Cotton Belt Route; from there I went to Ft. Worth, Texas, going through Detroit, Paris and Commerce; from Ft. Worth I went to Sherman, Tex., crossing Red river near Dennison, Tex.; from Dennison I went to Bryant, I. T.; from there I came here, coming through many other places, the names of which I have forgotten.

Ft. Towson is located on a spur of the Devil mountains in the Choctaw nation and is on the Frisco Railroad in the center of one of the finest pine forests of the territory. This a new town of several hundred inhabitants. A new saw mill is being built here now with a capacity of one hundred and fifty thousand feet of lumber daily.

Hands of all kinds are in great demand here. Wages range as follows: Common labor, such as timber cutting, $2; saw mill hands from $1.50 to $2.50 per day; teamsters $1.75; section laborers $1.50 per day; carpenters and brick layers $2.50 to $4. per day.

There is a new Railroad being built through this place into the mountains and a great many hands are needed for this work.

This a high healthy country, but thinly settled on account of most of the land belonging to the Indians and has never been opened up for settlement. But the Government is making arrangements to divide the land among the Indians, giving each 160 acres and what is left of the land will be for sale at about $3.00 per acre. This is black sandy land and produces well and is easily cleared and cultivated.

I have failed so far to meet any Kentuckians here. I am thinking of rounding in home soon for a few days chat with old friends.

Please send my paper here instead of Piggott, Ark. and oblige. Wishing best luck to you and old friends.

I am yours respectfully,
 JNO. E. ROBERTS.

The First Requisite of Beauty.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow blotched complexion as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. H. Orme.

Somebody Relieves Him of His Purse.

Kearney Blue, traveling salesman for a Louisville firm, was relieved of seven dollars in cash and a promissory note for thirty dollars at the Union Station early this morning. He went to sleep while waiting for a train and somebody looted his pockets.

There is no clue to the guilty parties and Mr. Blue is anxious to get back his note for the thirty dollars even if he has to lose the cash.—Henderson Gleaner.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at J. H. Orme's drug store. Price 50 cents.

The Passing of the Pioneer.

Humanity is swarming over the globe and penetrating to its most hidden recesses. The noble army of pioneers will presently pass away. The pathfinder and the axewielders will find their occupation gone. There will be no more outposts of civilization, no heroic advance guard. All this will come to pass in time, but there are some localities that are sufficiently wild to test the courage of the pioneer skirmish line. One of the wildest of these appears to lie along the route of the Uganda railway in East Africa. From one of the advance stations on this jungle line the official in charge is reported to have recently telegraphed to the traffic manager asking for ball cartridges for his Snider rifle. He complained that for three nights a lion has slept on the station platform. He adds that when the lion isn't sleeping he is prowling up and down, clawing at the wall and door and doing his best to force an entrance to the office. Naturally the lone station master finds his rest a good deal broken by the unwelcome caller, and he wants the ball cartridges to frighten him away. Here is a picture for you—the lone station in the jungle the steel rails shining in the moonlight, the great yellow brute pacing up and down the platform, the wakeful watcher in his insecure office. When the last pioneer goes he will take with him an element of romance that the world cannot help regretting.—Exchange.

FREEDOM

Our school began last Monday with Miss Della Stembidge as teacher.

Miss Ruth Slayton gave an ice cream dinner Sunday, in honor of Jim Oliver and Fred Watson, of Fredonia.

Those present were: Misses Kittie McEuen, Bertha Ramsey, Mertie Conger, Ernie McEuen, Cora Hobson, Nellie Butler, Ruth Slayton, Messrs. Levi Ramsey, Ollie McEuen.

Misses Kittie McEuen and Ruth Slayton visited Mrs. Cloyd, Sunday. Kittie and Ollie McEuen attended the ice cream supper at Sheridan last Saturday night.

Misses Nellie Butler and Mertie Conger were the guests of Miss Ber Ramsey, Sunday.

Bro. Sipes will preach Saturday night and Sunday. Everybody invited to attend.

Failed.

All efforts have failed to find a better remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles than Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. J. N. Patterson, Nashua, Iowa, writes: "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold by J. H. Orme.

Are Running Coal in Earnest.

Mr. J. J. Coffy, who is Treasurer of the Crittenden Coal and Coke Co., of which his brother, R. L. Coffy, is president, is here this week from the East. These mines are beginning now to run coal in earnest. Their new tracks are now in good shape and to see the nice string of loaded wagons on the siding gives it a truly business appearance. These men will not do anything by halves and while they were slow in getting the work that for sometime had been idle, started, they can now push things to the limit.—Sturgis News Democrat.

How to Cure Chilblains.

"To enjoy freedom from chilblains," writes John Kemp, East Otisfield, Me., "I apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Have also used it for salt rheum with excellent results." Guaranteed to cure fever, sores, indolent ulcers, piles, burns, wounds, frost bites and skin diseases. 25c at J. H. Orme's drug store.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY NEWS.

[From Livingston Banner.]

Miss Blanche Landrum left Monday for Marion, by way of Princeton, for a visit of several days to the Misses Driskill. She expects a Miss Aikin to return from Princeton with her to visit here a few days.

Prof. Richard Robert Champion, late of Jonesville, La., was in town Tuesday on business and visiting. He says he will return to Jonesville about September first to take up school again.

Rev. W. R. Gibbs spent a few hours here Saturday and passed through town Sunday en route to his home in Crittenden county.

Russell Gray, of Salem, is the guest of Messrs. Haynes and David Dunn.

Prof. and Mrs. J. R. Brinson returned Sunday from a visit in Caseyville.

FROM LIVINGSTON ECHO.

Capt. R. Y. Northern, of Berry Ferry, whose illness we mentioned last week, is still very low and his friends are very anxious about him. His daughters, Mrs. Frank Leffler, of Florida and Mrs. Henry Hodge, of Dallas, Texas, are both at his bedside. Mrs. Hodge came Thursday and Mr. and Mrs. Leffler Saturday.

Eld. E. M. Eaton, of Marion, passed through Smithland last Saturday enroute to Pan Handle where he filled his regular appointment Saturday night and Sunday at Ohio Valley Baptist church.

Bro. Eaton is making a strong pull to lift the indebtedness on this church and expects to be ready to dedicate the house this fall.

A POINTER FOR TOURISTS.

Put Your Prayer Book on Top of the Things in Your Trunk.

"If you ever go to Bermuda I can tell you how to make time at the custom house," said a returning Washingtonian. "I reached Bermuda early in the morning. I made up my luggage rather hastily before leaving the ship.

"Just as I was ready to close my suitcase I noticed that I had left my prayer book on the lounge. I pitched it in rather unceremoniously, strapped down the case and hurried ashore.

"You don't have to wait to declare as you do when coming into the port of New York. As I stepped into the office of the Johnny Bull official I unstrapped my case and opened it up. The official talked at me as if I had been a telephone.

"Hello!" he said the first thing. "What's this?" he asked, picking up my prayer book. "Prayer book, eh? All right. Shut up your case."

"Want to look at anything else?" I asked.

"No. You're all right, my friend. Any man who will put his prayer book on top of his traps isn't likely to beat the government. I'll take that for your declaration."

I threw him half a dozen cigars. That's where I made my mistake.

"Got any more like these in that case?" asked the official.

"I said I hadn't, but do you know he wouldn't believe me, and I had to open up the case again, and he went through it as if he thought I was a smuggler."—Washington Post.

A PRODUCT OF MILK.

Galaith Is So Strong You Could Build a House With It.

You could build a house of milk if you liked, and it would be as strong and lasting as though made of Aberdeen granite, says M. Glen Fling in Technical World Magazine. Moreover, all the fittings could be made of the same substance, and they would outlive the finest ordinary material that was ever constructed.

Billiard tables, combs, fancy boxes and many other things are made from galaith, which is made from milk.

"There is really no limit to the articles which can be made from galaith. It takes dyes readily, and inferior grades are colored. The best remain white, however, for white galaith brings the highest price because of its similarity to ivory. The first grade of galaith is made up into knife handles, and it brings almost as high a figure as would so much ivory.

Galaith is the best substitute for ivory ever discovered, for it is smooth to the touch, retains its soft, creamy tinting for years, is not marred by soap and water and, unlike celluloid, is proof against fire. It does not chip or crack like bone and can be cut into the most delicate shapes, being tough and not easily broken.

Cave Dwellers.

Grottoes and caverns are used, more or less, as shelters by primitive peoples, and thus inhabited caves are of course most frequent in Africa. A considerable number of natives make their homes in caves along the southern shore of the strait of Gibraltar, and in some of those caves are found the polished stones and arrowheads of the stone age. Troglodyte villages are frequent in the Tebessa territory of Algeria, one of which at Djouf, 250 feet above the gorge of the Wadi Halfa, is reached by steps cut in the rock. The inhabitants of the Tunisian island of Galite are cave dwellers, their habitations being grottoes which they have dug out of the limestone or ancient burial caverns that they have enlarged. The subterranean villages of Matmata and of Melinen, hewn out of the rock, are in southern Tunisia.

Racine at His Work.

Racine, the French writer, composed his work while walking rapidly about, shouting out the lines in a loud voice. One day while he was thus composing part of his play of "Mithridates" in the Tuilleries gardens in Paris he was surrounded by a group of workmen who took him to be a maniac. On his return home from these walks he would write down scene after scene in prose, and when they were finished he would exclaim, "My tragedy is done!" considering the transposition of the lines into verse only a trivial thing.

A Remarkable Church.

A small watering place in Austria named Eichwald can boast of possessing a remarkable church. It was first built by an Italian architect at Venice at the expense of Prince Carlos Clary-Aldringen, who is a great admirer of Italian architecture. When it was finished the church was taken to pieces and packed in thousands of numbered cases for transportation to Eichwald. At that place it was eventually rebuilt and then made over to its inhabitants as a gift from the prince.

Almost an Insult.

Bess—Yes, the engagement's off. He told her she ought to give up novels and read something more substantial—something that would improve her. Ben—Well? Bess—Gracious! Don't you see? The idea of a man intimating to his fiancée that she could be improved in any way!—Exchange.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is scanty, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and calicah of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."
